Part III(a-d) - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

PUBLIC EDUCATION, MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION AND PUBLICATIONS

Information and publications include material sent on a regular basis to HSUS contributing members. The public relations department distributes national press releases on a variety of program issues, ranging from pet tips to protecting the earth and all its creatures.

CRUELTY INVESTIGATIONS AND REGIONAL OFFICES

The field services division and the investigations department investigate cruel and inhumane treatment of companion and non-companion animals both nationally and aboard. HSUS investigators undertake major investigations of the transportation, handling and sale of animals. Abuses in pet shops, wildlife habitat, zoos, circuses and animal shelters have been other targets of staff.

WILDLIFE, ANIMAL HABITAT AND SHELTERING

The division that covers wildlife habitat and sheltering is one of the largest departments and encompasses a variety of campaigns. These include: fur and trapping, captive wildlife, wildlife refuges, endangered species, wildlife contraception, predator control, migratory birds, wild birds as pets/humane transport, wild horses, marine mammals, elephants and people/wildlife problems.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE, LITIGATION, AND LEGISLATION AND GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

The general counsel's office provides legal assistance, advice, guidance, and support to other HSUS departments, divisions and offices. It also provides such aid to other humane societies, HSUS members, and the HSUS board of directors. The Society's government affairs department monitors Federal, state and local legislation involving wild captive domestic animals. In addition, the government affairs department seeks to educate constituents as well as government officials on legislative matters concerning animal welfare.
